

Raising Hearts & Voices to God

~ Greeting ~

Good afternoon, my name is Jean Kren Sickler and I represent the Divine Mercy Perpetual Adoration Chapel's Leadership Team.

Welcome!

Welcome to St. Peter's Church for our very first concert!
We have so many people to thank for making this event happen.
Honestly, all of those who have helped in any way have done so with their focus on God and not on themselves. They aren't seeking recognition. How beautiful is that!

Today is Pentecost Sunday!
Today we celebrate the Holy Spirit's descent upon the apostles.
Today we celebrate the birthday of the church.

Our originally scheduled performer will not be here today,
But we have some incredibly talented people who have voluntarily come forth to help us raise our hearts to God.
Just as Our Lord was once lifted up on the cross to die for our sins because He loves us, today we lift Him up in adoration.
Our performers will raise their voices in praise and thanksgiving for Jesus has taught us the meaning of love. Just as the Holy Spirit came upon the apostles and gave them the gift of tongues, the Holy Spirit has infused into each one of us the gift of love.
That love unites us, it is why we step out of the busyness of our daily lives and seek the love, the joy, the truth, the peace and perhaps even forgiveness at the feet of Jesus at our Chapel.

So, with all of that said, just relax and enjoy the performance.
To maintain a mode of prayerfulness and meditation, we ask that you will hold your applause until after each set.

Now we welcome Father Kearney for a few words and then
Father Mirek, our Chapel's spiritual advisor for an opening prayer.

Thank you !!
